

St. Michael's in the Hills Episcopal Church

October 2, 2022

welcome

We are so glad you have joined us today! Please take a minute to grab your name tag off the rack in the narthex before the service. If you don't see one with your name, let us know on the paper provided near the bulletins and we will print one for you.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Children are invited to stay after the 10 am service today for Sunday School. We will explore ways to love, learn and serve through story-telling, singing, crafts, reading scripture and enjoy a snack! Sunday School meets after the 10 am service on the first Sunday of each month.

CAN YOU HELP?

We are looking for more individuals who are willing to help lead Sunday School once a month. This is a very small time commitment and would mean the world to the kids who attend St. Michael's. If you can help out, please speak to Al Stephens or send him an email at Al@lovelearnserve.org

MUSIC NOTES

"Ave Verum" by W.A Mozart is this week's offertory anthem. "Ave Verum" is a motet in D major composed in 1791. Mozart composed this motet in the middle of writing the opera Die Zauberflöte. He wrote the motet as a gift for his friend Anton Stoll, who was the music director of the parish St. Stephan Baden. This motet was composed six months before Mozart's death. The text translates to,

"Hail, true body born of the Virgin Mary, who truly suffered, sacrificed on the Cross for man, Whose pierced side overflowed with water and blood. Be for us a foretaste in the test of Death."

You might notice that this original translation from the Latin hymn says "overflowed with water and blood" while the text performed by our choir only states "overflowed with blood". This omitted text can also be found in William Byrd's version with the Latin word "unda" (meaning whence) found in its place. The reason for the change is unknown.
