We explore ways to love, learn and serve through story-telling, singing, crafts, and reading scripture, and we enjoy a snack! Sunday School follows the 10:00 service and will run for approximately 45 minutes. All ages are welcome to attend!

Please sign up on the hall bulletin board if you can attend the potluck and bring a dish to pass. Thank you!

ORGANIST'S NOTES

This morning's preludes are taken from a collection entitled, "A Little Organ Book in Memory of Hubert Parry." On the occasion of Parry's funeral in the Cathedral of St. Paul on October 16, 1918, a group of his friends made what was described as a "small wreath of melodies, which were woven together and played." Those original pieces, along with additional contributions from others, were collected and published in Parry's memory. The title was taken from a piece by Parry himself, "For the Little Organ Book", included as the first piece in the collection.
