ABOUT THE MUSIC: “REJOICE IN THE LAMB”

The words of the Cantata, “Rejoice in the Lamb” are taken from a long poem of the same name. The writer was Christopher Smart, an eighteenth century poet, deeply religious, but of a strange and unbalanced mind.

“Rejoice in the Lamb” was written while Smart was in an asylum, and is chaotic in form but contains many flashes of genius. It is a few of the finest passages that Benjamin Britten has chosen to set to music. The main theme of the poem, and that of the Cantata, is the worship of God, by all created beings and things, each in its own way.

The Cantata is made up of ten short sections. The first sets the theme. The second gives a few examples of one person after another being summoned from the pages of the Old Testament to join with some creature in praising and rejoicing in God. The third is a quiet and ecstatic Hallelujah. In the fourth section, Smart takes his beloved cat as an example of nature praising God by being simply what the Creator intended it to be. The same thought is carried on in the fifth section with the illustration of the mouse.

The sixth section speaks of the flowers, “the poetry of Christ.” In the seventh section, Smart refers to his troubles and suffering, but even these are an occasion for praising God, for it is through Christ that he will find his deliverance. The eighth section gives four letters from an alphabet, leading to a full chorus in section nine which speaks of musical instruments and music's praise of God. The final section repeats the Hallelujah.

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Collect for Christmas

O God, you make us glad by the yearly festival of the birth of your only Son Jesus Christ: Grant that we, who joyfully receive him as our Redeemer, may with sure confidence behold him when he comes to be our Judge; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

“A CHRISTMAS TO BELIEVE IN”

Written by Sharon Kay Chatwell (2007)

Organ Prelude: Ode to Joy

SCENE 1: INTRODUCTION & AN ANGEL VISITS MARY

Hymn 89, v. 1 (Please remain seated)

Carol

It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old, from angels bending near the earth to touch their harps of gold:
“Peace on the earth, good will to men, from heaven’s all gracious King”
The world in solemn stillness lay to hear the angels sing.

SCENE 2: AN ANGEL VISITS JOSEPH

Hymn 78, v. 1 (Please remain seated)

Forest Green

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

SCENE 3: MARY & JOSEPH TRAVEL TO BETHLEHEM

Hymn 101, v. 1 (Please remain seated)

Cradle Song

Away in a manger, no crib for his bed,
the little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
the stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

SCENE 4: ANGEL APPEARS TO SHEPHERDS

Hymn 96, v. 1 (Please remain seated)

Gloria

Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night, and the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight.
Gloria in excelsis Deo! Gloria in excelsis Deo!

SCENE 5: SHEPHERDS TRAVEL TO BETHLEHEM

Hymn 83, v. 1 (Please remain seated)

Adeste fideles

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
come, and behold him, born the King of angels;
O come let us adore him, O come let us adore him,
O come let us adore him, Christ, the Lord.

SCENE 6: THE WISE MEN AND HEROD

Hymn 128, v. 1 (Please remain seated)

Three Kings of Orient

We three kings of Orient are, bearing gifts we traverse so far, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.
O star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty brig;
westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light!

SCENE 7: BIRTH OF JESUS & GIFTS FROM THE WISE MEN

Hymn 100, v. 1 (Please remain seated)

Antioch

Joy to the world! The Lord is come; let earth receive her King;
let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven and nature sing, and heaven, and heaven, and nature sing.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

by the Rev. Jeremiah D. Williamson from Praying the Scriptures (2014)

Leader: Come let us adore Christ, the Lord. Let us pray: "Glorious Lord,
People: Grant us your peace.

Leader: Christ the Lord, we humbly adore you: Make joyful our hearts. Strengthen your Church with humility and faith that we might triumph over the power of evil. [Silence.] Glorious Lord.
People: Grant us your peace.

Leader: Christ the Lord, we humbly adore you: you abhor neither the simple nor the lowly. Shine your light on all the world that the nations may look upon your truth and find their salvation. [Silence.]
Glorious Lord.
People: Grant us your peace.

Leader: Christ the Lord, we humbly adore you: may all of creation burst forth in songs of praise. May all the works of your hand glorify you. Are there any thanksgiving you wish to share? [Silence.]
Glorious Lord.
People: Grant us your peace.

Leader: Christ the Lord, we humbly adore you: summon the people of the city to yourself. May all of the distractions and heartache of our lives fade away in the joy of your presence. [Silence.] Glorious Lord.

People: Grant us your peace.

Leader: Christ the Lord, we humbly adore you: you love us so dearly. Grant your healing grace to sinners, to the poor, to those in need of love. Open your arms to the sick and the lonely, especially Dick, Elmer, Letty, Lillian, Kit, Cris, Diane, Henk, Kerry, Arlene, Jerilyn, Heather, Monty, Marguerite, Muffy, Candy, Mary, Julie, Angela, James, Claire, Gary, Bob, Greg, Nancy, Ann, Alicia, Terry, Teresa and Tom. Are there others you wish to name? [Silence.] Glorious Lord.

People: Grant us your peace.

Leader: Christ the Lord, we humbly adore you: all glory be given to you. You blessed our earthly bodies with your birth; and you promise to raise us to new life by your death and resurrection. [Silence.] Glorious Lord.

People: Grant us your peace.

Celebrant: Almighty God, you have poured upon us the new light of your Incarnate Word: Grant that this light, enkindled in our hearts, may shine forth in our lives; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The Peace and Announcements

The Holy Communion

Offertory Prayer

Celebrant: Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Our Christmas offering this year will be given to Episcopal Relief and Development.

Offertory: Still, Still, Still

arr. Norman Luboff

Doxology: Hymn 115, v. 3

Greensleeves

*So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh, come, peasant, king, to own him;
the King of Kings salvation brings, let loving hearts enthrone him.
This, this is Christ the King whom shepherds guard and angels sing
Haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mary.*

Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death, and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may without shame or fear rejoice to behold his appearing.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus & Benedictus: St. James Advent Service

arr. Richard Shephard

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r, of pow'r_ and might. Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in_ the high - est. Blessed is he, is he who comes in the name_ of_ the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - sa - na in the high - est.

Celebrant: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son.

For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you.

In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People: We remember his death, We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant: And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction Anthem: St. James Advent Service

arr. Richard Shephard

Be known to us, Lord Je - sus Christ, in the break - ing of the bread. God of hope and God of pro - mise, you have pre - pared a ban - quet for us;
Come, Lord Je - sus, come and cheer, Come and make thine Ad - vent here.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

People: O Lamb of God, in union with the faithful at every altar of your Church, my heart offers you praise and thanksgiving. I love you above all things, and I earnestly desire to receive you into my soul. And although I cannot receive you sacramentally, I invite you into my heart spiritually. May my soul be fed by this spiritual food, and may my heart know you more dearly in the breaking of this bread. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Our Christmas Offering

This year's Christmas offering will be given to Episcopal Relief and Development. Episcopal Relief & Development works in collaboration with church partners and other local organizations to facilitate healthier, more fulfilling lives in communities that are struggling with hunger, poverty, disaster and disease. They also work around the world and here in the US responding to and rebuilding after disasters.

Their programs impact the lives of over 3 million people annually. They respect the dignity of all people and view them as our neighbors, working alongside participants regardless of religious affiliation or background. Their unique expertise, experience and practical knowledge allow them to guide communities to lasting change with a focus on three key priorities: women, children, & climate. In their disaster response and recovery work, they offer resources and training to help people prepare for disasters and provide support so vulnerable people can make a full and sustained recovery. Their integrated strategies are developed in collaboration with local partners and communities to help ensure the results we generate are sustained over the long-term. Visit: www.episcopalrelief.org

Upcoming Activities

St. Michael's and the West Mission Area invite you to join us at St. Michael's for Evening Prayer, pizza and a screening of The Philadelphia Eleven on Monday, January 6th from 6 to 9 pm in the Fellowship Hall. Please sign up on the hall bulletin board or use the QR code to RSVP.

Evening prayer begins at 6:00 pm; dinner and the screening will start at 6:30 pm. For many of us, we can't remember a time when women weren't allowed to be ordained as priests. It was only 50 years ago, in 1974, that eleven women were ordained as priests in the Episcopal Church, two years before General Convention affirmed and authorized the ordination of women to the priesthood. This documentary tells their stories. Thanks to the West Mission Area Council for their financial support of the screening.

Moms are invited to attend our newly formed "MUMS" Club (Mothers Uplifting Mothers) to share and discuss the good & the difficult parts of parenting. We will meet Thursday, January 9th from 9:30-10:30 am in the Fellowship Hall. Come enjoy a break in your busy schedule to connect and form new friendships. We'll enjoy snacks, coffee, tea & fellowship. Open to all, not just church members! Bring a friend!
